The Downs Speedway club was originally established in 1966-67 when racing was held at the old Toowoomba Showgrounds and continued there until 1974 when the Royal Agricultural Society announced they would promote speedway themselves. The then members of the club voted to establish their own grounds and in May 1975 the land at Charlton was purchased and many hard-working dedicated people spent a lot of hours working to establish this great complex that we enjoy today. The Down Speedway Club's Charlton Raceway complex was opened on 23 April 1977.

The club ran and operated the venue successfully until the 2013/14 season when become privately promoted by Alan Woods who operated the venue for two seasons until he sold the lease to Made Too Go Pty Ltd (Barry Waldron) in 2015 for the 2015/16 season.

AROUND THE GROUNDS – 8 NOVEMBER

Written by David Budden

Images by Andy Ticehurst Media

Sprintcars are back at Hi-Tec -Oils Toowoomba Speedway this Saturday night November 8 for round three of the Queensland Speedway Spares Ultimate Sprintcar Championship, again paying out a whopping $20,000 A main total prize package which includes $5,000 to win and $500 to start the A main. Ryan Newton, now having completed his American schedule, makes a welcome return to Toowoomba's Hi Banks on Saturday night. Newton had a stellar American campaign based in Pennsylvania, his best win and career highlight at the Hockett/McMillin Memorial in Missouri. His second win during this American tour, plus various other podiums and feature races around Pennsylvania. It's going to be fantastic to see Ryan back amongst a quality field of 31 410 Sprintcars on Saturday night. If you include Harry Stewart who just finished third in the West Australian Speedcar Title last weekend plus Aaron Kelly, Jy Corbet returns to the high banks of Toowoomba Speedway after a few nights racing in West Australia. Crowd favourite Kinser Claridge is back in town for round 3 of the Ultimate Sprintcar Championship. He will be joined by Kaydon Iverson and Brodie Davis who can't be ruled out of a podium finish and if you include Mick Sauer to the equation, he can't be ruled out either. Sauer came from 16th to 3 in round 2 earning himself the hard charger award. There are the locals in Tarhlea Apelt, Charlie Bowen and Anthony Lambert among the nominations they will all need to be on their A-Game if they want to secure a podium result. Can Luke Oldfield beat them all to the chequered flag "certainly". Oldfield, one of the biggest movers from round 2 having to come from the back to finish 7th all eyes will be on him as he sets out to improve on his points standings. Nic Whell is quickly becoming a master of qualifying, stopping the clock at 11.755 during qualifying for round 2. Nic's father David putting a lot of time into the preparation and car setup thus getting Nic comfortable behind the steering wheel, proof of that is he now sits comfortably in second in the series standings between Lachlan McHugh and Brodie Davis. Toowoomba's Tarhlea Apelt rounds out the top ten and is more than capable of climbing the ladder in the points standings as the series rolls along.

It's been talked about for 12 months and another year has rolled around and as expected another classy field of 20 cars for the V8 Dirt Modifieds Super Rooster Classic that pays $5,000 to win thanks to Ray Klarich from Super Rooster who have the best chicken and chips in town. It's a big season for V8 Dirt Modifieds as they contest the Sweetacres Speckle Park Australian Championship in May, right here in Toowoomba that alone has brought out the best drivers and teams to HI-Tec-Oils Speedway this weekend. The professional rivalry between David Clark and Australian Champion Kevin Britten is set to reignite as both chase another feature win. Although Mark Robinson and Andrew Pezzutti may have something to say about that, both have a wealth of knowledge around Toowoomba Speedway and will certainly be on the pace come Saturday night. If you include Ray Klarich, Phill Roberts and Trent Scofield it's going to make for some entertaining racing.

Once again late models are producing a quality field of 14 plus cars. Jordan Cunningham, Bryce Lack and Carter Armstrong top the list. Alex Sweeney and former super sedan driver Ryan Cats. While last year's club champion Nathan Battersby will be one to watch. Daniel Cassidy has finished 2nd in an Australian Title in Warrnambool and is current Queensland Champion and could prove to be the man to beat this weekend. Lachlan Onley and Todd Bayley have proven in the past that they are very fast around Toowoomba and it wouldn't be a surprise if they don't get close to breaking the lap record. If you add Ben Nicastri and the father and son combination of Brodie and Jason Boss that name familiar with Modified Sedan, it's going to produce some exciting racing Late Model style.

As always the Formula 500s produce close and entertaining racing as they head back to Toowoomba's Hi Banks for round 3 of the Forza Global Formula 500 Series. Liam Williams is on the impressive list of nominations as is Bailey Leeson. Toowoomba will be Williams first race of the season and will certainly be hard to beat while Amanda Chaffey is in good form winning Round 2 in Kingaroy from James Kennedy and Mitchell Whittaker. Leeson who is also having the opportunity to drive a Speedcar this summer, will be one to watch with interest finishing 3rd on debut. There is a strong contingent of drivers travelling down from North Queensland as in Seth Chellingworth, Josh Pokarier and Luke Schmidt will certainly be in the mix on Saturday night. In the juniors, it another stellar field of 13 nominations with three rookies having their first race meeting at Toowoomba this weekend, great to see the category growing. Emily Perry was the stand out performer winning the Kingaroy round Cooper Dawson is always there and capable of a feature win as is Zack Hilder. The Juniors always produce close racing and Saturday night will be no exception.

So sit back and enjoy what is sure to be another great night of racing at Hi-Tec Oils Toowoomba Speedway.
