The Downs Speedway club was originally established in 1966-67 when racing was held at the old Toowoomba Showgrounds and continued there until 1974 when the Royal Agricultural Society announced they would promote speedway themselves. The then members of the club voted to establish their own grounds and in May 1975 the land at Charlton was purchased and many hard-working dedicated people spent a lot of hours working to establish this great complex that we enjoy today. The Down Speedway Club's Charlton Raceway complex was opened on 23 April 1977.

The club ran and operated the venue successfully until the 2013/14 season when became privately promoted by Alan Woods who operated the venue for two seasons until he sold the lease to Made Too Go Pty Ltd (Barry Waldron) in 2015 for the 2015/16 season.

KICKING UP THE DIRT

Written by Joanne White

Images by Andy Ticehurst

Round two of the Cush Clothing Co Queensland Sprintcar Speedweek was held at Hi-Tec Oils Toowoomba Speedway last weekend, Saturday 27 December 2025, with Harry Stewart taking a commanding win in the Titan Garages Q96 racer, making it a rare double after also winning the John Dean Memorial Speedcar feature event moments earlier. Aaron Kelly had another solid run in the Q7 racer and crossed the line second for the second consecutive night with Charlie Bowen again home in third. Nicholas Whell secured fourth while Sprintcar newcomer Ewan Oliver impressed with a brilliant drive to fifth after transferring from the B-Main. The 360-LS Sprintcars put on a brilliant race, with Ryley Smith securing his second win of the season ahead of Dan Moes, with Luke Manttan rounding out their podium. Jacob Jolley and Alyssa Cherrie rounded out the top five in the 360-LS Sprintcar feature.

Charlie Bowen set the pace in Open Sprintcar qualifying, stopping the clock at 11.766 seconds to secure the top spot. Brodie Davis (11.899) was second quickest ahead of Jayden Peacock (11.920), Harry Stewart (11.985) and Aaron Kelly (12.003). Heats got underway with Kye Jensen winning the opening heat race, while Kevin Titman, Ryan Potts and Daryn Pittman were able to claim wins during the event.

360-LS Sprintcar qualifying saw Ryley Smith top the leader board with a 13.149 second lap ahead of Brodie Tulloch, Jacob Jolley and Luke Manttan, with Libby Ellis completing the fastest five. Heat wins went the way of Luke Manttan, Brodie Tulloch, Jack Walker and Dan Moes.

Brodie Davis and Aaron Kelly led the eight-car Dash to green light conditions, with Kelly securing the race lead ahead of Davis, while Harry Stewart and Jayden Peacock got the better of Charlie Bowen to settle into third and fourth respectively. A caution followed when Kye Jensen made heavy contact with the wall coming out of turn four while racing Bowen for position, leaving the Q12 racer out of the race. Kelly led the restart from Davis and Stewart and while Stewart had a bold look on the inside of Davis shortly after racing resumed, he was unable to get the job done. Peacock pounced a lap later, slipping underneath Stewart, only for Stewart to immediately fire back to regain the advantage. Aaron Kelly took the win, but in the post-dash draw he inverted the top eight starters for the main race. Brodie Davis crossed the line second ahead of Harry Stewart and Jayden Peacock, with Ryan Potts, Charlie Bowen and Adam Butler completing the finishers. Kye Jensen did not finish the race but with the top eight inverted would start the main race from pole position.

The open Sprintcar A-Main started with rising star Kye Jensen from pole position and Adam Butler alongside. Butler got the jump on the start and secured the lead, with Jensen settling into second while Harry Stewart took to the high line from position six and made his way into third before sliding underneath Jensen for second as they rounded turn four for the first time. Jensen fired straight back as they raced down the straight, the pair side by side through turns one and two before the race was paused with Kevin Titman stranded on the track in turn four. Butler led the restart from Jensen and Stewart with Charlie Bowen in fourth ahead of Jayden Peacock and twenty-nine laps to run. Stewart got underneath Jensen on the restart but the race was brought to stop moments later when Kaydon Iverson inverted the Q53 racer in turn two after contact with Aaron Kelly.

Adam Butler led the restart from Kye Jensen and Harry Stewart, with Charlie Bowen, Jayden Peacock, Ryan Potts and Aaron Kelly close behind. Jensen had a big look on the inside of Butler when the race resumed but was not quite able to get the job done, while Harry Stewart made his move through turn four on the same lap, making his way to second and setting out after Butler and the race lead. Kelly caught Bowen and the pair had a thrilling battle each throwing multiple slide jobs on the other as the negotiated over fifth and sixth. Stewart caught Butler in lapped traffic but the race was stopped when Kye Jensen inverted the Q12 racer in spectacular fashion in turn four after contact with Jayden Peacock. Jensen was unscathed in the wreck but unable to continue the race, while Peacock was relegated to the rear of the field for his involvement in the incident, thus elevating Aaron Kelly to third for the restart.

Adam Butler led the restart from Harry Stewart and Aaron Kelly, Charlie Bowen and Brodie Davis. Stewart looked underneath Butler on the restart but without success, while Davis got past Bowen and then underneath Kelly, with Kelly fighting back to maintain third. Stewart followed Butler for just one more lap before racing through underneath and into the race lead, the Q96 racer then beginning to open a sizable margin on the rest with a straightaway advantage in less than a lap. Kelly got the better of Butler and left Butler to try and defend his position from a hard-charging Davis, while Stewart began weaving his way through lapped traffic while extending his lead. Nicholas Whell challenged Charlie Bowen for fifth while Davis slid underneath Butler. Bowen, Butler and Whell had an intense battle for positions four, five and six. A caution for the spun car of Ryan Potts paused the race with fifteen laps to run.

Harry Stewart led the restart from Aaron Kelly, Brodie Davis, Charlie Bowen and Nicholas Whell. Stewart took just four laps to again enter lapped traffic, weaving his way through the back markers while extending his lead over Kelly and Davis. Davis began to close on Stewart in lapped traffic, as Kelly and Bowen put on a show behind them. Ewan Oliver made his way into fifth and began challenging Kelly for fourth, with Nicholas Whell also fighting for a top five result. Stewart greeted the white flag, had just three quarters of a lap to run, when Ryan Potts got into the wall in turn one, right in front Stewart. Stewart avoided the wreck, and while Potts was unscathed he was out of the race, leaving a two lap sprint to the chequered flag. Stewart led the restart from Brodie Davis and Aaron Kelly, but a damaged front wing on the Davis Q16 racer proved troublesome and Davis collected the wall hard as the race resumed, quickly pausing the race once more as he tore the front end out of the Q16 racer. With Davis now out Kelly lined up behind Stewart for the restart and a shot at the top step. Harry Stewart however was not going to be denied and went to take the win, making it two from two after already winning the Speedcar feature earlier in the night. Aaron Kelly settled for a second consecutive second ahead of Charlie Bowen, with Nicholas Whell home in fourth and Ewan Oliver having a brilliant drive to secure fifth after transferring from the B-Main. Daryn Pittman finished sixth ahead of Jayden Peacock, Ayrton Gennetten, Mitch Gowland, Adam Butler, Tarhlea Apelt, Daniel Bridge, Cooper Norman, Kevin Titman and Tony Bridge. Brodie Davis, Ryan Potts, Kaydon Iverson and Kye Jensen all failed to finish the race, while Cody O'Connell elected not to start the event after riding out a monumental wreck in the speedcar feature. We wish Cody a super speedy recovery.

In the 360-LS Sprintcar feature race, Jacob Jolley and Luke Manttan started the A-Main from the front row. Moes secured race control when things got underway, with Smith and Jolley left to argue over second with Brodie Tulloch and Luke Manttan close behind. Smith settled into second, with Tulloch then getting the better of Jolley to secure third, while further back Aydin Claridge and Jack Walker traded places mid field, while Dan Murray, Anthony Vanderreyden and Alyssa Cherrie negotiated a little further back. Smith and Tulloch closed in on Moes in lapped traffic, the trio almost four-wide as Moes raced around the lapped car of Holly Russell as Smith and Tulloch both raced through underneath. Moes and Smith pulled ahead as Tulloch got momentarily caught behind another lapped car, giving Jolley the only invitation he needed to join the battle for a podium result. While Jolley challenged Tulloch in thick lapped traffic, Smith made his move on Moes to take control of the race. Once in front Smith made it all look easy as he quickly opened a sizable margin on Moes and the rest, while Jolley and Tulloch were embroiled in a captivating battle for the final podium position before Luke Manttan joined the battle, getting ahead of Jolley and turning his attention to Tulloch. Tulloch, Jolley and Manttan caught Moes and the battle that followed captivated the crowd. Contact between Tulloch and Jolley left Tulloch stranded, pausing the race with five laps to run. Ryley Smith led the restart and would go on to take the win, his second of the season and a remarkable consistent run. Smith now has two wins and five seconds to his name this season, from the seven nights he has contested thus far and is shaping up to be the one to beat this season. Dan Moes crossed the line second ahead of Luke Manttan, with Jacob Jolley fourth and Alyssa Cherrie having another impressive drive to round out the top five. Brodie Tulloch salvaged sixth ahead of Jack Walker, Rahnee Cooper-McNae, Aydin Claridge, Noah Ball, Dan Murray, Libby Ellis, Steve Bateman, Anthony Vanderreyden and Holly Russell. John Grother and Beau Bateman did not finish the race.

These cars will start behind all cars from Feature Race #1. Any cars that have changed their right rears, will start at the rear of the field behind any sub / B-Main cars.

At the conclusion of Feature Race #2 the top 3 drivers will go to the podium for presentation. At the conclusion of the trophy presentation for Feature Race #2 to the overall aggregate winner of the combined feature races will be presented with trophy.

AROUND THE TRACKS

31 DECEMBER 2025

Written by David Budden

In another string of firsts at Toowoomba's Hi-Tec-Oils Speedway over the Christmas, New Year period Zac Brims has joined the ever-growing list of firsts. Brims won his first Super Sedan feature and what a night to remember winning the 5th Annual Ian Boettcher Classic under threatening skies.

Todd and Brock Atkins formed the front row both former Junior National Sedan Champions. From the green light Brock got the better of the start as Mitchell Gee tried to go through the centre as this was happening Zac Brims drove underneath them all and into the race lead. Brock Atkins has a cheeky look underneath Brims as rain starts to fall across the Speedway as they enter lapped traffic. Brims takes to the high line to clear the traffic as Gee commits to the bottom and moves into 2nd. One lap later he had moved into the race lead with 44 laps still left to run and Brims fading to 4th. Mitchell Gee continues to weave his way through traffic as Brock Atkins goes with him in very treacherous conditions. Gee drops to the bottom, Atkins seeing an opportunity stays up high and straight into the lead. Ten laps into the race it was put on hold for a rain delay. When the feature race resumed Brock Atkins took over where he left off in the race lead with Gee all over the back of him and searching for a way past Atkins drifts a little wide giving Gee the only invitation he needed to take over the race lead. Zac Brims now comes back into the equation and moves into second. A restart followed when Gee spun on the high line while passing a lapped car. From the restart they went three wide into turn 1 as Zac Brims led the biggest race of his career followed by Brock Atkins, Hayden Brims and Brad Pascoe moving into the top four just as he spun the car around to bring out the yellow flag. From the restart the inevitable happened and those persistent showers made for the difficult night not to continue from the halfway point, forcing the Modified Sedan feature race to be cancelled.
